

THE FUTURE OF CITIES

Humanity's future is an urban future. Yet that future is in jeopardy. From rising crime to prohibitive costs of living to unrest stemming from growing inequality, many cities in America and abroad are suffering from the bad decisions and policies of urban elites. In many of them, the status quo is simply unsustainable. But as The Future of Cities shows, the future can be different. The path forward for cities should not be rooted in nostalgia for past greatness but in a reimagined vision of our urban future. The Future of Cities helps put us on the path in that direction.

Date: May 24, 6:00–9:00 PM

Location: The Harmonie Club

Address: 4 East 60th Street, New York, NY 10022

Note: This panel discussion features contributors to The Future of Cities. There will be a reception before the panel. The reception will include drinks and hors d'oeuvres. We will have books present for guests to take with them.

RSVP: Please RSVP to Michael Pugh at Michael.Pugh@AEI.org.

Coeditors

Joel Kotkin

Roger Hobbs
Presidential Fellow
in Urban Futures,
Chapman University

Ryan Streeeter

State Farm James Q.
Wilson Scholar and Director of Domestic Policy Studies,
American Enterprise
Institute

Sam Abrams

Nonresident Senior
Fellow, American
Enterprise Institute

Charles Blain

President, Urban
Reform and Urban
Reform Institute

Sherry Lee Linkon

Professor of English and American Studies, Georgetown University

Harry Seigel

Columnist,
New York Daily News

Panelists